

PRESS RELEASE

Stefano Pellegatta is the new CEO of Gruppo Fabbri Vignola

Vignola, 1 December 2022

Gruppo Fabbri Vignola is pleased to announce the appointment of our new CEO, Mr. Stefano Pellegatta, in office with full powers from December 2022.

Renewal and Speed are the key words that will characterise his new management: "Today, the secret of business is knowing how to anticipate change. With its dual production of packaging machines and food films, Fabbri Group has the good fortune and the pride of being able to control the entire production process, with wide margins for experimentation and development. We have all the credentials to become a recognised excellence in the world of packaging beyond Italian and European borders. The uniqueness of our business can and must be taken to the highest level of development," explains the new CEO.

Former General Manager of Zeus Packaging, Mr. Pellegatta has solid experience in strategic and organisational management, sales development, resource management, and operations.

This is why the shareholders of the Argos Wityu Group considered the choice of the new CEO as the most suitable one to ensure the strengthening and further growth of Fabbri in the global market.

Fabbri Group – With over 70 years of experience in the marketplace, it is an international industry leader in the manufacture and sale of machines, films and software for fresh and ultra-fresh food packaging. With around 500 employees, more than 120 active patents granted in various countries around the world and 5% of its annual turnover invested in research and development, it offers industry, fresh food processors and retail solutions covering all food sectors. It comprises 4 production units (3 in Italy, 1 in Switzerland) and 9 sales and service companies in Italy, France, Germany, UK, Switzerland and Russia. Active in around 80 countries worldwide through more than 90 highly qualified dealer companies, it stands out for its constant focus on emerging market needs.
